Overview

The Temporary Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) was first authorized in 1981 to distribute surplus commodities to households. The name was changed to The Emergency Food Assistance Program under the 1990 farm bill. The program was designed to help reduce Federal food inventories and storage costs while assisting the needy

This program falls under the umbrella of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA)

Who is involved in administering TEFAP?

COVID-19 Precautions & Exceptions

- ▶ Wearing masks and practicing safe social distancing is a requirement for distributing food
- ▶ We strongly encourage a drive thru method or limit the number of clients that are in your facility at one time
- ▶ We have information on safe distributions available on our website <https://goldenharvest.org/our-impact/partnerships/community-partners/>
- ▶ During the pandemic we have been granted the ability to complete the application on behalf of the client by verbally asking the information and inputting COVID-19 in the signature block

Who can receive TEFAP Food?

Community Partners

- ▶ TIER 1 agencies may receive any available TEFAP product to distribute to clients
- ▶ TIER 2 agencies may receive produce and milk to distribute to clients in their program(s)
- ▶ All Community Partners must go through training and complete a TEFAP agreement
- ▶ TEFAP cannot be sub-distributed to other partners and or individuals not affiliated with Golden Harvest Food Bank

Clients

- ▶ Any client that meets the income guidelines can be served TEFAP food
- ▶ Resides in GA in a county within Golden Harvest service area

How often can a client receive TEFAP food?

AT LEAST ONCE EVERY 30 DAYS
THERE IS NO LIMIT ON HOW OFTEN A
CLIENT MAY RECEIVE FOOD

CLIENTS MAY ALSO RECEIVE FOOD AT EACH DISTRIBUTION IF THIS IS THE POLICY OF YOUR AGENCY

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English. To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ers.usda.gov/oc/programs/submitting_a_complaint/ and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in this form. To request a copy of this complaint form, call (866) 622-6962. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; (2) fax: (202) 696-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

- ▶ The application must be completed in its entirety
- ▶ P.O. Box numbers are prohibited
- ▶ Do not circle, check, or make notations in the income chart
- ▶ Total in household must includes the client completing the form
- ▶ Volunteers are required to ask if the client is at or below the income for their household size
- ▶ Information the client provides is self-declared
- ▶ Due to COVID-19 you may write the clients name in the signature block or the word COVID-19 where applicable. Please indicate one or the other each time a client receives food.
- ▶ Authorized Representatives remain optional to your agency preference
- ▶ Be sure to use the current application that ends September 2022
- ▶ Agencies that use TEFAP to cook and serve clients do not have use an application. However, they will need to utilize a menu that designates whether TEFAP was used in the meal.

Commodity Distribution Record

- ▶ This form should be completed prior to the start of your distribution.
- ▶ The purpose is to document TEFAP items that were given to clients in the event of a recall & to ensure all clients have equal access to TEFAP commodities.
- ▶ Agencies that serve clients based on household size will need to have a chart for volunteers to go by.
- ▶ Agencies that operate on a client choice model will need to ensure clients have the same options available to them.
- ▶ Agencies that use TEFAP in meal preparation will need to have a method of tracking which items were used in their meal preparation.

Justice for All

AND JUSTICE FOR ALL

In accordance with Federal law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, and reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.)

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, and American Sign Language) should contact the responsible State or local Agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, which can be obtained online, at <https://www.asec.usda.gov/sites/default/files/USDA-CASCRHS202-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by:

U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; or fax:

(833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442;

email:

Because TEFAP is supported in whole or in part by financial assistance from the Federal Government, we are required to let you know that—

- We may not discriminate against you on the basis of religion or religious belief, a refusal to hold a religious belief, or a refusal to attend or participate in a religious practice;
- We may not require you to attend or participate in any explicitly religious activities that are offered by us, and any participation by you in these activities must be purely voluntary;
- We must separate in time or location any privately funded explicitly religious activities from activities supported with USDA direct assistance;
- If you object to the religious character of our organization, we must make reasonable efforts to identify and refer you to an alternate provider to which you have no objection. We cannot guarantee, however, that in every instance, an alternate provider will be available; and
- You may report violations of these protections (including denials of services or benefits) by an organization to the State agency (<http://www.fns.usda.gov/fdd/food-distribution-contacts>). The State agency will respond to the complaint and report the alleged violations to their respective USDA FNS Regional Office (<http://www.fns.usda.gov/fns-regional-offices>).

We must provide you with this written notice before you enroll in TEFAP or receive services from TEFAP, as required by 7 CFR part 16.
